TODAY

Anne Cargile, PDG, will present a program on National Immunization Day in Nigeria – the Rotary Foundation at Work. This program is being arranged by Jayne Steubing.

NEXT WEEK

Next week will feature one of our own, Damian DeDonatis. Not to worry, he is not going to sing, instead, invite us into the "World of Body Building". Should be very interesting! Did you know that Damian will be competing professionally later this month? This program is being arranged by Ken Swain.

LAST WEEK

President Joe Gallagher called the meeting to order. Frank Strauss led us in the first verse of America, and Anne Phillips provided the invocation. Lunch After a pizza lunch, Frank Strauss led the song, "Loch Lomond" in honor of the Scottish sport of curling. Phil Falconer introduced visitors and guests, Larry Jones of Glenville, and 4 boy scouts. MHS Bruce McConnelee passed the dollar to Cliff Semerad. President-Elect Cindy Amell started off happy dollars with the fact it was finally snowing, and happy winter sport participants visited the box.

Announcements:

- Ken Swain reminded the BBQ committee they will be meet briefly after today's club meeting.
- Ken shared information on Schenectady Rotary's Karaoke contest being held March 4 at the Van Dyck.

- Wayne reminded everyone to continue selling citrus. He is hoping the remainder will be sold by the end of this week.
- Larry Jones shared information on the Rotary Birthday Party being held February 23. Proceeds will benefit the Rotary Foundation.

President Joe reminder members that the Board will meet tonight at the Buhmaster complex.

Bill Diman was the winner of the 50/50 raffle.

Phil Falconer introduced guest speaker Jim Sinkins. While now a resident of Guilderland, Jim emigrated from his native Scotland in 1962. Jim presented a program on the ancient sport of Curling, which was founded in Scotland over 700 years ago. The sport was played on frozen lochs and rivers, the players would bring whiskey and the game lasted as long as the whiskey did. There are now 45 nations enrolled in the World Curling Federation. Jim is a member of the Schenectady Curling Club, which has a strong membership of 220 individuals. This past weekend 32 teams participated in a women's bonspiel (tournament). Jim brought a curling stone, broom and special shoes to help explain the sport. He reports that once you go to a bonspiel, you are hooked.
