TODAY

Tiff Yager's brother Rick will talk about the boating course he does on a regular basis...Tiff promises he will be entertaining. Welcome aboard Rick.

NEXT WEEK

It will be a good program. Plan to be there.

LAST WEEK

We sang the first verse of America; Chic Gilgore led us in a patriotic invocation. Phil Falconer gave the MHS dollar to Mike McLaughlin. Bruce McConnelee thanked the club for turning out to help with the sound booth at Freedom Park. Shirley Hine wanted us to know that the Chestertown Club is sponsoring a golf tournament on 21 August. Contact Shirley at sahine@netzero.net for more info. Joe Gallagher won $13 on the first 50/50 draw. Dave Montana won the chance to spin for $24. Sadly, his number didn't come up. Oh well, more money for today.

The program was given by President Cindy, and it was about her adventures in Montreal. Cindy is one good Rotary salesperson. Here she is selling chicken to the incoming RI President.

SAY HI TO DAVE STERMAN

Our good friend Dave Sterman has been in the hospital in Virginia with a leg infection. He expects to go home to the RV one day this week with Nurse Anne assisting and no she is NOT Nurse Ratchet! If you want to send him some good wishes you may do so at dsterman@gmail.com We miss you both from your Scotia Rotarians and friends.

CANADA

Since the most recent Rotary International Convention was in Canada, I thought the following facts might be interesting:

Canada AT A GLANCE

121
Number of Rotary clubs in Canada in 1935

349
Number of Rotary clubs in Canada in 1960

733
Number of Rotary clubs in Canada in 2010

7
Number of RI conventions held in Canada
