TODAY

We will welcome Frank Pouliot and Helen Penna, presenting The China Water Project: Rotarian efforts to bring clean water to desert villages in northeastern China. This program was arranged by Mike McLaughlin.

LAST WEEK

Our own Jonathon Pearson talked to us about investments in today's market. To put it in a nutshell, we should "Hang Tough" and no panic.

NEXT WEEK

It's not known at press time, but it surely will be interesting.

Also happening last week:

Doug Roylance led us in the opening song, "America"

Susan Fitting gave our Invocation with some Memorial Day thoughts.

Doug Roylance led us once again in song with "Tell Me Why" (or why not), at any rate, it wasn't the Beatles version.

There weren't any Visitors or Guests and no one introduced them.

Diana Bennett passed the Golden Happy Dollar to Shirley Hine.

Announcements

Bruce Rowledge is looking for nominees for Citizen of the Year and Rotarian of the Year. From PDG Terry; get your donations in for the Rotary Foundation. You can use your credit card, and General Electric will match funds for employees.

John Eaton thanked volunteers for the Memorial Day Parade. He also noted that he is a Marine, and it never rains on "His" parade.

Claudia will take donations for the "Relay for Life", right up until the event. Luminaria are $5.00 each, in memory of, or in honor of.

Phillip D. (Phil) Falconer has been proposed by Jon Pearson for membership in Scotia Rotary. Phil lives on Via Maria Drive in Glenville and his classification is Forensic Meteorologist. If no written objections are received by the Secretary within ten days, Phil will become a member. When he begins to attend, be sure to greet and welcome him!
